

Corlebach's

High Grade—Not High Priced

Fascinating New Summer Frocks of Striking Daintiness

New individualized styles distinguished by their immaculate freshness and fairylike models.

In Plain Organdie and Figured Voiles

A remarkable assortment in plain organdie and figured voiles, embracing all that is dainty and unique.

Colors are pink, orchid, rose, blue and maize.

Prices, $16.50 to $40.00

In Tricolette

An amazing and appealing collection of the season's smartest and most striking presentations.

Colors are navy, black, brown, taupe, sand and copen.

Prices, $50.00 to $85.00

Millinery

New Feather Hats

We have now ready and will offer for sale on Monday—a most elaborate and picturesque assortment of New Feather Hats.

Prices Range from $12.50 to $25.00

Ribbon Tams

We are now displaying vogues latest in ribbon tams in models exclusive and dainty.

Colors, blue and white.

Priced at $10.00

Blouses

Our new showing of blouses in well-selected models is extremely attractive. Many new styles in georgette, crepe de chine and lingerie will be on sale Monday.

In all late model and wanted colors.

Prices Range from $3.95 to $35.00

1210 F Street

Store closed all day Saturdays

Black—Tan—White.

Shoes and Hose of Today Style-with-comfort.

Arthur Burt Co., 1343 F.

"Nature-Shape" School Shoes.

Store Closed All Day July 4th and 5th
Close Every Saturday During July and August

STEINWAY

The Fullest Expression of High-Grade Pianoforte Construction

This wonderful instrument has been the aid and inspiration of artists for generations. In student days the first mental impression of absolutely PURE TONE is obtained, while the fingers find proper assistance and perfect response in the well-balanced action.

The STEINWAY proves a lifetime companion in the home, and when it comes time for concert tours it is the STEINWAY that is used everywhere by the great artists—vocalists and instrumentalists.

In the Home the Steinway Becomes the Beloved Possession

Prized for its musical merit, its beauty of model and its companionship.

If you wish, we will reserve any instrument for future delivery, and it may be convenient to arrange payments to continue throughout the summer.

E. F. Droop & Sons Co.

Exclusive Distributors for Washington

Player-Pianos

1300 G

Victrolas

Society

(Continued from Third Page)

Westminster Church, officiated. In the presence of a number of friends. Miss Mary McDonald played the wedding march from "Tobacco." The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming gown of white georgette trimmed with silk ostrich, and her tulle veil was held by a bandeau of clover brilliants and orange blossoms. She carried a shower of bride roses. Miss Helen Stone, who attended her sister as maid of honor, wore a gown of flesh-colored crepe de chine, and the bridesmaid, Miss Mabel Keister, wore pink georgette, and both carried showers of pink roses. The bridegroom had as his best man and attendant Mr. John Keister and Mr. William Keister. A supper was served following the ceremony and later Sergt. and Mrs. Kahl left for a wedding trip up the Hudson, the bride wearing a blue and white linen suit and a white feather toque.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Koonce have been joined by their young daughter, Miss Katharine Koonce, who has been a student of Joseph's College, Maryland, for the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marshall of Cheverly, Md., have as house guests Mrs. M. H. Purcell and Miss Julia Purcell of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mr. L. Donnelly of Staunton, Va., and Mr. W. C. Millar of Bellevue, Va.

Mrs. Margaret Bell of 4621 Georgia avenue northwest announces the marriage of her daughter, Elizabeth Virginia, to Mr. Charles Russell Rafferty of Indianapolis, Ind. The marriage took place at 9 o'clock yesterday morning at the Sacred Heart rectory, the Rev. P. C. Gavin officiating.

Mrs. Clinton C. Buckner announces the engagement of her daughter, Mary Eleanor, to Mr. Kenneth Charles Leggett, first lieutenant, U. S. A., air service. The date for the wedding will be announced later.

A surprise linen shower was given Thursday evening, June 26, by the Misses Florence Lubar and Rose Ostrow, in honor of Miss Sylvia Githburg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Goldberg, whose engagement to Mr. Edward Ostrow was recently announced.

Very appropriate decorations were used. The centerpiece of the table was a kewpie dressed as a bride, holding souvenirs tied with white ribbons that led to each place. A very enjoyable evening was spent by all and many appropriate gifts were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Fergen of 562 Kenyon street northwest are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Clark of Kansas City.

Wedding in St. John's Church.

St. John's Church was the scene of a pretty wedding when, at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Miss Kathryn Mary Averill, daughter of Mrs. Sara E. Averill, formerly of Rochester and Utica, N. Y., became the bride of Mr. William Horace Williamson of Rochester, N. Y.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward Slater Dunlap in the presence of the bride's mother and a number of Washington friends, followed by a dinner for the wedding party at the New Willard Hotel. Mr. Clement Campbell, organist at St. John's, presided at the organ.

The bride was attended by Miss Josephine Igel of Washington, and Raymond J. Bantel of Rochester, N. Y., acted as best man.

After an extended automobile trip, Mr. and Mrs. Williamson will make their home in Rochester, N. Y.

The marriage of Miss Katharine Delaplaine Tillman, daughter of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Samuel E. Tillman, and Mr. John E. Martin Jr., second secretary of the American embassy at London, was celebrated Monday morning in the chapel of the Church of the Holy Trinity, New York. The Rev. James V. Chalmers, who officiated at the wedding of the parents of the bride, performed the ceremony. Only members of the immediate families were present.

Mr. Martin has been in this country on a short leave of absence which expired yesterday. He started at noon for England on board the steamship Pittsburg, leaving his bride, who will follow her husband to London in the near future.

Gen. Tillman recently retired as superintendent of the United States Military Academy at West Point. At the time of the announcement of the engagement on June 9, it was expected that the wedding would not take place until the autumn.

Mr. Martin is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Martin of Jacksonville, Fla., and nephew of Mr. Henry Prather Fletcher, United States ambassador to Mexico. He was graduated from Princeton in 1911 and soon afterward entered the diplomatic service.

The marriage of Miss Mary V. Schuyler and Mr. Louis E. Libbey of California took place on Wednesday, June 26, in the parsonage of the Sacred Heart Church, Rev. P. J. Eckenrode officiating. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Libbey started for a short wedding journey, after which they will make their temporary home with the bride's grandparents, at 1200 Monroe street northwest.

The bridegroom, whose home is in California, recently returned from France, where he was with the American expeditionary force.

Among the recent June weddings of interest in this city was that of Miss Beatrice Marie Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Parker, and Mr. James H. Finn, both of this city. The ceremony, which was attended by relatives and friends, was performed by Rev. E. Jerome Winter, at the Church of the Sacred Heart, 14th street and Park road northwest, and was followed by a nuptial mass. The young bride, who was given away by her father, wore a charming gown of white georgette over white satin, with tulle veil arranged with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Gladys Graine of Brockton, Mass., a cousin of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor and wore a white georgette with touches of pink and a large picture hat. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas.

Mr. Thomas Hurney of this city, who recently returned from overseas duty with the American expeditionary force, was the best man. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, being attended only by the immediate family.

Mr. and Mrs. Finn left later for Atlantic City, and upon their return, about July 1, will be at home to friends at 217 Columbia road northwest.

An informal dance was given by Miss Lorraine E. Watt Saturday evening, June 21, at the East Washington Ball. Mr. Raymond Towers and William Burrows, accompanied by Mrs. Amy Smith, entertained the guests during the intermission with vocal selections.

Among those present were the hostesses, Mrs. Pearl Watt, Misses Ade McGowan, Helen Kellogg, Marion Goebel, Mildred Moore, Thelma Magruder, Lucille Jones, Gertrude Eskey, Eleanor Watt, Christine Barclay, Mae Davy, Gertrude Virstein, Elizabeth Watt, Messrs. Walter McCloskey, Arthur Zimmerman, William Thomas, Earl Harrison, William Kinsfather, Louis Wanheson, Charles Dyer, Everett Perry, Ellsworth Virstein, Robert Knadler, Raymond Towers, William Burrows, Leo Gertman and Harvey Castell.

Connecticut Visitors.

Dr. and Mrs. Randolph Harlow and their son, Mr. Perry Harlow of Greenwich, Conn., are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Ramsey at their cottage, Anatok, at Pocono Manor, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hechinger and their daughter, Mrs. Leona Graf, are

MRS. WALTER A. NICHOLSON.
Who was Miss Mildred A. Buckinger before her marriage on Wednesday, June 11.

now located in their new apartment, 1812 Vernon street northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney L. Hechinger have gone to South Bethlehem, Pa., to attend reunion week at Lehigh University. While there they will be the guests of the Pi Lambda Phi Fraternity.

The marriage of Miss Esther Kahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kahn, to Mr. Allan H. Fisher of Baltimore will take place at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening, July 2, at Hotel La Fayette. Only the immediate families and a few friends will be present.

Mr. P. Michael Cook and Miss Lavina C. Gaskins were married at St. Patrick's Church on Tuesday morning, June 24, at 8 o'clock. Father J. M. McNamara performed the ceremony and officiated at the nuptial mass which followed.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with a long tulle veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Mildred Gaskins, her sister, who attended her as bridesmaid, wore a frilled gown of blue tulle with large picture hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Mr. Martin Cook was best man for his brother.

Breakfast was served to members of the immediate families at the home of the bride, 4122 Keokuk street, Chevy Chase, D. C., after which Mr. and Mrs. Cook left for a short trip to Atlantic City and New York. The bride's going-away costume was of blue and gray cloth. On their return they will reside at 304 Rhode Island avenue northeast.

St. Stephen's Catholic Church was the scene of an attractive wedding at noon on Thursday, June 26, when Miss Helen Jeanette Cady became the bride of Mr. Edgar Moral Leaman. The bride was attended by her niece, Miss Marian Elizabeth Cady, and Mr. Frank A. Schwarz of Chicago served as best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Francis McGraw.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Leaman left for a wedding trip, the bride wearing a dark blue suit, with hat to match, fox fur and a corsage bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid wore dark blue georgette, with hat to match, and Killarney rosebuds.

Most picturesque and novel will be the Confederate lawn fete to be given by the Stonewall Jackson Chapter, U. D. C., on the evening of July 1, at Terrace Inn, on the corner of 14th street and Thomas circle. Numerous booths have been arranged for the ladies in charge, many appearing in costume, the cigarette girls in Turkish attire. The Japanese tea garden will be most attractive with its bevy of girls in Japanese attire. A fortune teller will reveal past, present and future, and not the least of the attractions will be the young ladies of the Confederate choir, gowned in the quaint and becoming attire of the days of the Confederacy and filling the air with songs of Dixie. Dancing will continue during the entire evening.

The committee in charge is composed of Mrs. Charles Hamilton Fred, president of the chapter; Mrs. Benjamin Soule Ganta, chairman; Mrs. Frank Morrison, vice chairman, assisted by Mr. William Bowie Clarke, Mr. Harry Bayles, Mr. West, Mr. Fred, Mr. Thomas J. Evans, Mrs. Robert Williams, Mrs. Clay, Mrs. Beit, Mrs. West, Mrs. Catherine Bayles, Miss Catherine Robinson, Mrs. Wallace Grayson Orme, Mrs. Augustus Werber, Miss Willie May Darrow, Miss Lilian Chenoweth, Mrs. Tuck, Mrs. Bertrand Ewell Trevis, Miss Margaret Cockrell, Miss R. Bell and Mrs. John Hanford.

Miss Mae H. Ricker entertained a part of the special searching section of the war risk bureau at her home, at Fort Myer Heights, Va., on Sunday, June 22. Those present were Misses Rose A. Cronin, Minerva, N. Y.; Florence Paradine, Coldwater, Mich.; Lura Sevall, Chancellersville, Ohio; Lottie Schlemmer, Lakewood, N. J.; Jessie Spittler, Luray, Va.; Eva Stephenson, Bedford, Ind.; Gertrude Miller, Vienna, Va.; Hannah Falls, Dafter, Mich.

Shirley Treadwell, Bridgeport, Conn.; Amelia Thland, Payson, Ill.; Elma Little Rock, Miss; Cora Kixmiller, Freeholdville, Ind.; Clara Creath, Takoma Park, Wash.; Marguerite Hays, Akron, Ohio; Mary Williams, Little Rock, Miss.; Henry Ayre, Cleveland, Tenn.; Pearl Southard, Conneaut, Ohio; Florence DuBois, Wichita, Kans.; Janet Rose, Saltsburg, Pa.; Mabel Hazard, West Palm Beach, Fla.; Mary L. Rose, Saltsburg, Pa.; Margaret Kelley, New Bedford, Mass.; and Mae Ricker. Later in the evening, when refreshments were served, Misses Margaret Kelley, Henrietta Ayre and Mae Ricker presided over the punch bowl.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, with nuptial mass following, at the Sacred Heart Church, when Miss Mary Evelyn Quinn, daughter of Mrs. John Quinn and the late Mr. Quinn, became the bride of Mr. Joseph Henry Aukward, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Aukward of this city. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Jeremiah J. Quinn, wore a lovely gown of blue lace. Her tulle veil was becomingly arranged and caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white orchids and bride roses. Miss Gertrude A. Quinn, the bride's sister, who attended her as maid of honor, wore a rose pink organdy with girle of lavender satin, and a large picture hat to match. She carried pink Killarney roses and purple orchids. The best man was Mr. Perry B. Fineran. (Continued on Fifth Page)

Store Opens 9:15 A.M.

Young Ladies' Shop

1217 G Street N.W.

Two Stirring Events Embraced in One OUR FIFTH END-OF-MONTH SALE Splendidly Augmented With Offerings From Our Semi-Annual Clearance

Good news for thrifty women of the city and adjacent points! The pruning knife has clipped the profits of every price ticket throughout the store and has created buying opportunities most astounding. Read every item below and note the savings enumerated in each instance. You'll profit if you purchase!

Prices
Throughout the Store
Radically
Reduced
and Forming the buying chance supreme

Every item in Summer
Wearables must go regardless of former prices or even cost

Every Suit in the House Made of Tricotine, Poret Twill, Gabardine, Men's-wear Serge and Silver-tone, beautifully silk lined in navy only; also a few Jersey Sport Suits. Regular prices up to $75.00.

$29.75

Every Cape and Dolman Reduced to prices within the reach of every one; made of Serge, Gabardine, Tricotine, Silvertone and Velour; Pussy Willow silk lined. Values to $55.00. Now.....

$15.95

Dresses, All of This Season's latest models have been reduced for this event; comprise models of Voile, Organdies, Georgette Crepe, Net, Foulards and Taffetas, in all colors and sizes. Prices were $25, $35, $45 to $75. Reduced to..

$15.00 Up to $37.50

Skirts, in Gabardine, Silk Poplin, Fanta-sai, Crepe de Chine and Tricolette, in all the latest colors and sizes. Regular prices up to $29.50. Priced at.....

$4.95 Up to $19.50

$2.95

Pennsylvania Avenue

Saks & Company

Seventh Street

$2.95

Another of Those Extraordinary Sales of Women's Shoes

From a coteremporaneous maker we have been able to secure another assortment—better if anything than the one of a week ago—and you know what an attraction that proved.

Not quite so many pairs—about a thousand—but fully as many styles—more than twenty-five—embracing the most wanted models.

Again the Choice for

$2.95

The Values Are
Double and More

The materials are—
Patent Leather
Bright and Dull Kid
Gun Metal Calf
Satin
White Nu-Buck
White Canvas
White Reignskin
White Polar
White Poplin
White Sea Island Duck

The styles are—
Victory Pumps
Liberty Pumps
Plain Pumps
Opera Pumps
Plain Slippers
Opera Slippers
Tongue Pumps
English Oxfords
Dress Oxfords
Sport Oxfords
Colonials

—and many pairs of White Hight Lace Boots.

All types of heels—low, high and medium—and among them all is every size from 2 to 8—and AA to E.

$2.95